

Monday 30th March Oaks Immersion lesson for new genre: persuasion

Play room 101 with members of your family.

This is a TV show where a celebrity has to persuade the host to put something into Room 101 to be locked away forever. 3 people compete against each other and the most persuasive one wins and has their idea/thing sent hurtling down to room 101 deep in the vaults of the building to be banished forever!

So you have to choose something that you really don't like or don't see the point of and try and persuade the other person to agree with you.

Use sentence starters such as

I believe that.....In my opinion.... Others must agree that.... It is clear that....

I'm absolutely certain..... The time has come to....

Surely..... Everyone knows that...

Just out of interest here are some of the things that have been sent to room 101 on the TV show. You might like to use one of these but the Maths teacher one is banned (although you can choose absolutely anything else at all from the list or from your own choice as long as it is appropriate for school/home learning.)

*long gloves

*rats

*car stickers

*caravans

*clowns

*Maths teachers.....

(HOW RUDE!!!!!!)

!!!!!!!

*foxhunting

*oysters

*litter

*slugs

*jellyfish