This is an example below and you would need some IT skills to put it all together, but the school that has already done this had a great response from the kids – point awarded for beating the teacher, sending in evidence and awards given on return to school (!!!). But could do a class competition or an improvement competition etc. Doesn't have to be fitness could be skills based too!!!

And don't forget the usual, Go Noodle, Cosmic Kids Yoga and BBC Supermovers – just google and they will come up - all free)

OPEN PHYS ED (free to register)

<https://openphysed.org/activeschools/activehome>

Lots of different ideas for different ages (US based, so may need a tweak – but a good place to start for different ideas!)
