

Hello Y5. It's Thursday.

By now you should be moving towards mastery or onto greater depth hopefully.

If you finish, make up some word problem cards of your own where whole numbers and decimals have to be multiplied or divided by multiples of ten.

Don't forget to make a little flap over your answer though so that the adult/older brother or sister that tries to solve your problem can't see the solution!