

Good morning Oaks. Today is the beginning of a writing genre that I know you have been waiting for (in excitement) ever since we started our GODS AND MORTALS topic! It is narrative (story-writing).

At the end of this sequence you will write a story about a god/goddess who favours a mortal with a problem on earth and helps him/her in magical ways to find a solution.

This is a common theme in Greek stories.

So today you need to research Greek gods and goddesses. Find out their special talents/powers/personalities. It is far more important today, to find out a little bit about a lot of gods and goddesses.

Tomorrow, you will be able to look in great detail at your chosen one or two gods/goddesses.
