

Facts about LS Lowry.

L.S. Lowry (Laurence Stephen Lowry) was born on 1st November 1897 in Stretford, Lancashire. In 1909 he moved to Pendlebury an industrial town of mills. He became very interested in the buildings while he lived there. He went to Manchester School of Art. His paintings showed industrial Pendlebury and he was famous for his “matchstick men”. Lowry died in 1976.