

Monday 22nd June

Today is final chance to edit your description.

Read it to an adult or older brother/sister. Together, can you improve anything at all? Word choice? Spelling? Grammar(sense)? Punctuation? Can you add a simile or a sound effect?

Have you written a piece of description rather than a story?

If you are satisfied with your end result, well done.

Have a go at drawing a closed pandora's box by following the video below but then imagine that the box has closed AFTER all the contents have flown out, so draw the contents in the air too. I would love to see these pictures too.

Search for how to draw pandora's box be really curious
