

Monday 28th June Poetry year 4+5+6

Today you are going to make some planning notes about your poem.

Listen to Ms. P talks...poetry first to find out what was important to me at the planning stage of my poem.

First of all, I want you to write about being a Spartan unless you have a burning desire to write about a different aspect of Ancient Greece. If so, that is fine.

Otherwise, you can magpie the title if you like:

I AM SPARTAN. FEAR MY NAME

as Spartans were famous for their warrior skills, bravery, strength, determination and resilience.

Planning Headings:

Title: (you can magpie mine if you like)

Main Aim: e.g. to make the reader see a really clear image of..... using descriptive language/imagery such as...

Or to make the reader feel a certain emotion

Or to make the reader think a certain way about the subject of the poem..

Verse form: (one long verse or short verses of 4 lines each for example)

Rhyme: (decide if you want to have rhyme and write out some rhyming pairs that you might use. Where will rhyme appear? Will it be irregular rhyme without a set pattern or regular rhyme e.g every 2 lines will rhyme= rhyming couplets or lines 2 and 4 rhyme in a 4-line verse etc..)

Alliteration: (where the first letter of the first word is the same...write down some examples that you might use)

Simile examples :

Metaphors: (optional for y4)
