

Tuesday 9th June y4+5+6

Hello Oaks Today you are going to show the levels of class within Ancient Greece

The highest class(or group) were paid the most money and had the best privileges- special rights. The next class (group) down would not be paid quite as much...the next class down would be paid even less and the people in the lowest class would be the poorest of all the people.

Search social classes of ancient Greece by instructomania

Watch this video making notes of people in

Upper class:

Upper-Middle Class:

Lower-Middle Class:

Bottom Class:

Now fill in this ranking pyramid below by drawing the correct pictures in the correct sections. Remember that the highest class goes in the very top section of the pyramid and the lowest class of soldier within the army goes in the bottom section. You may want to search for images to copy of Ancient Greek slaves, women, children, Kings, soldiers, teens, farmers, artisans(skilled workers/craftsmen),soldiers,prisoners. By the correct sections label the 4 class types shown above.

