Next, talk to parents , write the title and poet if you can and write a sentence about each poetry feature below:

1. Rhythm (Is it a fast or slow beat/rhythm? Sad or jolly rhythm?)
2. Verse form (Is the poem just one verse? How many lines? More than one verse? Same number of lines in each verse?)
3. Is there any alliteration in this poem? (words that start with the same sound)
4. Is there any rhyme? Does it follow a pattern? E.g every line rhymes every 2 lines rhyme?
5. Are there any similes?
6. Are there any metaphors?

7.If there wasn't evidence of alliteration, make up a line or phrase using alliteration which would link to your poem choice.

8. If there wasn't evidence of simile, make up an example which would link to your poem choice.

9. If there wasn't evidence of metaphor, make up an example which would link to your poem choice

Did your poem predominantly create a fantastic image in your mind's eye or create a feeling or make the reader think about an issue carefully? Explain which words in particular created these effects.
