

Thank you for your letters. We were so pleased to read of your activities.

Like you, we find the days very long but we can go out for short walks.

The most important part of the day is meal times. I love rice pudding and ice cream.

Keep working and keep out of mischief. Keep a diary and when you are old like me you will enjoy reading it.

D.