

MRS EDGEWORTH'S SUMMER READING CHALLENGE 2020.

As the long summer holiday approaches, I challenge you once again to pick up a book and enjoy reading.

There are four parts to this challenge. Complete as many as you can over the summer. Anyone who takes part will receive a certificate. Complete all four and you will be entered into the prize draw.

1. Read at least three different books from three different authors. You can read them by yourself or share with someone at home.
2. Design a new front cover for your favourite book. Remember you will need a title and the author's name on the front.
3. Read a book from a genre you wouldn't normally read. For example poetry, non-fiction, adventure, fantasy, science fiction.
4. And finally:

Reception and Year 1: Share your favourite stories with someone at home. Can you tell them why you like these stories.

Year 2 and Year 3: Find a poem you really like, read it and then try and learn it off by heart. Can you recite the poem to someone at home.

Year 4 and Year 5: Find out what it means to be the Children's Laureate. Below is a list of the most recent Laureates. Try and find out about them and choose to read one of their books (choose an author you haven't read before). Reading Charlie and Lola does not count!

2019-2021	Cressida Cowell
2017-2019	Lauren Child
2015-2017	Chris Riddell
2013-2015	Malorie Blackman

Bring everything back during the first week of term. Closing date: Friday 11th Sept 2020.

Good Luck and Happy reading

Mrs Edgeworth

Challenge 1: Books I have read.

1.

2.

3.

Challenge 2: Design a book cover

Challenge 3: The book I chose from a different genre.

The book was called:

The author is:

The genre is:

I enjoyed/didn't enjoy the book because.....

Challenge 4: