Good Morning Oaks (from Ms. Pickard)

Thank you for sending your finished poems/raps to me. They were brilliant!

When I have shared them with pupils in class it has really made them eager and enthusiastic to finish theirs and to try and create a finished result that was just as good as the examples they had just enjoyed.

At the end of the week, Y5 will need a protractor for their week's revision focus so please let me know in good time if you have not got a protractor at home and need to borrow one from school.

Here are your activities for today (you can do them in any order).

Joe Wicks PE (or another type of physical activity – go for a walk or do a Morning Mile run)

Reading for 20 minutes – THE MOST IMPORTANT!

English

Today we start our new Literacy Sequence which will lead towards a final write diary entry about the famous Battle of Marathon between the Ancient Greeks and Persians.

Maths

Y5 work with White Rose maths to improve multiplying mixed number skills today.

Y6 Can you bring all your Maths skills and knowledge together to crack the code in this task?

R.E.

Find out what our puppet-friend Douglas the Christian thinks about heaven and try to express your own ideas in a painting.

Geography and Music

See Mrs Edgeworth's instructions.

Enjoy your learning.
