

Monday 13th July 2020

Good Morning Oaks from Ms.Pickard

Well it's here at last...the final week of term and I can hardly believe it! I wonder if like me (year six) you feel a mixture of excitement about the fun ahead in this last week tinged with sadness that the school year is drawing to an end.

I hope you enjoyed The Challenge story by Harrisus. Watch out for part two this week (with far more pictures to highlight the tale).

Here are your activities for today (you can do them in any order). ☑ Joe Wicks PE (or another type of physical activity – go for a walk or do a Morning Mile run)

☑ Reading for 20 minutes – THE MOST IMPORTANT!

☑ English

Today Oaks will decide which war-like Greek god or goddess they will pray to for victory as they continue to plan towards the diary extract in The Battle Of Marathon.

☑ Maths

Y5 I hope you have your protractors at the ready! You will be investigating angle this week and sharpening your protractor skills!

Y6 I say, I say, I say.... What did the zero say to the number eight? Answer: Nice belt you're wearing!

R.E.

Today we are thinking about why humans make mistakes and behave badly sometimes and how they can put things right (from a Christian point of view). Our puppet-friend Douglas has a few things to say about that!

Happy Monday.