

Tuesday 14th July 2020

Good Morning Oaks from Ms.Pickard

Yesterday, Miss Bamber and I were soaked by the y6 in a water fight – something that they really wanted to do in the last week of the year. I should have just about dried out by the time you read this!

If you have been waiting to find out what happens in chapter 2 of The Challenge by Harrisus, open the storytime with Ms. P file today to find out! There's lots of great illustrations to help you imagine the scene today.

Here are your activities for today (you can do them in any order).

PE (Joe Wicks or another type of physical activity – go for a walk, Morning Mile, water fight)

Reading for 20 minutes – THE MOST IMPORTANT!

English

It is the day to write your diary entry about the Battle of Marathon. Think about everything that you have learned in the days leading up to this final write and try to bring the battle to life.

Maths

Y5 You will be continuing your angle focus today.

Y6 Hey Year Sixes....if you feel a bit chilly in class, go and stand in the corner because it's always 90 degrees there. \(Did you get that joke from my dad, Ms P? Miss Bamber\)

History

Today, you can follow step-by-step instructions to draw simplified but effective Ancient Persians.

Enjoy your learning!