

y3

Today I want you to make some planning notes so that you can write a realistic diary entry.

Look at these images of the area where the battle of Marathon took place and write a list of adjectives to describe the scenery:

Describe the heat and the mountains in the background and the dry scorched grass.

Write a list of verbs linked to battle. Don't forget the arrows raining down from above too.